Dave Scheer is a versatile and engaging leader with 26 years of experience in Information Technology Management, Entrepreneurship and Human Resources Management. Dave leverages his expertise in business and technology to convey innovative and effective advice for adapting to and metabolizing change - improving leadership and change skills, personal relationships, and business performance. Dave is the founder or co-founder of three Wisconsin based businesses and has completed graduate work in Education and Business. He is a project management practitioner and has served in leadership roles in small business, state government and Fortune 50 companies. Dave has a deep interest in leveraging his experience to provide transformational moments that help others come alive and grow.

Are you ... In the Wellness or Healing Arts business? Are you a teacher, healer or business that offers healing services?

A healthy, thriving business takes care and nurturing, just like the care and nurturing you offer to those who come to your business for help.

Who's there to help you?

There are plenty of consultants and coaches willing to help you, but do they know anything about YOUR world? Mind-Body-Spirit services are unique. The people you hire and employ are unique. This is a diverse and special healing culture that needs the experience and wisdom of consultants that know the industry of healing.

Where is your business at?

- ❖ Launching a new Wellness-based business.
- ❖ Feeling insecure or stressed in your current business; struggling to make a profit or fearful of even staying in business another year.
- ❖ Want to grow your small start-up operation into a thriving enterprise.

Qi Garden Business Consulting can help you and your business not only survive but Come Alive and Thrive!

Qi Garden Business Consulting is a Wellness-based consulting team who, as owners of several wellness businesses themselves, understand the balance needed with a Mind-Body-Spirit business. They use a Yin Yang approach to a successful business, and stay within your core values and principles to ensure that the growth of your business feels good to you as your profits soar.

If you feel you could use a little help (or a lot!), contact us right away and take a deep, relaxing breath ... help is on the way and everything will be okay.

Consulting

Will travel to your business site for a hands-on approach by assessing your business, gathering and analyzing your concerns, meeting with staff, review financials and technology, discuss operations, marketing, menu and offerings, and more before working with you on an action plan to bring your business to life or reconstruct it into a thriving, positive culture built for profit while keeping your ultimate goals in the forefront.

- On-site 1-3 Day
- On-site 4 or 5 Day

Coaching

Coaching is a valuable method of achieving long-term sustained results as well as accountability in achieving goals specifically catered to your business. For those who prefer to begin with an individual coaching relationship or as a continuation of support after an On-Site visit, Coaching is available on a weekly, monthly or annual basis.

Peer to Peer Advisory Groups

Small group format that focuses heavily on participating member challenges with strict adherence to confidentiality. Great opportunity to use the expertise and experience of others in your situation with guided and formal structure to develop and learn continued business growth.
